

As customers who visit my workshop at Castlecove will be aware, I am constantly losing the battle to keep adequate levels of stock on the shelves here (and in Gallery One)! In an effort to remedy this and to allow myself time to work on new designs, I will be limiting the amount and type of pre-ordered work that I do in the future.

After the winter season of 2015 –2016, I will no longer be making totally ‘one-off’ commissioned pieces. Many of my standard designs can be somewhat modified and personalised to suit occasions. These designs can be seen on my Facebook page, Cara Turner Ceramics Castlecove, in the Albums section. I will reorganise and add to these on an ongoing basis.

From March 2016, my ‘work seasons’ will be:

March 1st – September 30th: No advance orders taken, but items already in stock can be reserved and then collected/ sent out. Many of these can be personalised with names, dates etc.

October 1st –28/29th February; Standard designs in FB Albums may be pre-ordered, and where necessary, slightly modified to suit occasions.

Studio-shop, Castlecove. Open 1st March –30th September, 10a.m. – 6p.m.

(Please see Facebook page for daily variations, eg.days when I am working in Gallery One.)
